

Party of Communists USA Speaks Out Against US Attempts to Destabilize Venezuela

The Party of Communists USA (PCUSA) opposes all efforts from Western imperialism to destabilize the internal affairs of Venezuela following the recent election of Nicolas Maduro. We understand that there are some internal differences within the Communist Party of Venezuela (PCV). However, our job as American Communists is to help foster an atmosphere of international unity in our common struggle against U. S. imperialist intervention.

We reject wholeheartedly the attempts of certain Communist parties to intervene in the internal affairs of other Communist parties. Communist parties are governed by their own internal democratic centralist processes, not the external meddling of foreign groups. In fact, it is a sign of ultra-left petty-bourgeois radicalism, not Marxism, to intervene in the internal affairs of other parties, or to pressure them to set up alternate puppet formations.

Communists cannot descend into internal squabbles, losing sight of the ultimate goal of defeating U. S. imperialism and its economic tentacles around the globe. The defeat of U. S. imperialism is the only way to the ultimate victory of Socialism, and eventually Communism.
